Banksia ericifolia dwarf

Compact form of Banksia ericifolia growing to 1.8m in height and 2m width. Narrow linear leaves to 2cm in length and large yellow-orange cylindrical flower spikes to 30cm.

origin
NSW.

cultural notes
A very hardy shrub in most climates and soils but requiring good drainage. Grow in full sun or part shade.

maintenance
Can be pruned to maintain shape. Avoid fertilizers high in phosphorus tolerates

tolerant of frost, drought, poor soils and salt spray.

flowering season
Autumn and Winter.

flower colour
Large cylindrical flower spike with hooked styles, yellow-orange in colour.

foliage colour
Bright to mid green linear leaves to 2cm in length.

width
up to 2m

height
up to 1.8m

plant spacing
100cm apart

recommended uses
Very hardy, useful as a small hedge or screen. Bird attracting.

Source URL: http://plantsandlandscapes.com.au/prov_site/Banksia_ericifolia