

plant type

- native trees and shrubs

water hardiness

Eucalyptus blakelyi

blakely's red gum

A medium to large tree growing to 25m in height. Smooth, grey bark mottled with patches of white, grey-blue, pinkish-brown and creamy yellow. Adult foliage is pointed, lance shaped and up to 16cm long.

top ten

bird attracting

origin NSW, ACT, Qld, Vic.

project type

urban and commercial
residential
farm forestry and agriculture

cultural notes Prefers a sunny position in well drained soils.

tolerates Tolerant of frost, drought and salt.

flowering season Spring and Summer.

flower colour White or pink flowers occurring in the leaf axils.

soil type and drainage

light - sandy soils
medium - loamy soils
good drainage

foliage colour The mature foliage is a dull grey-green in colour, curved lanceolate growing to 16cm in length. Juvenile foliage is similar in colour but shorter and broader in shape.

width up to 5m

height up to 25m

plant spacing 200cm apart

recommended uses Shade tree, bee attractant.