

plant type

- native flowers, groundcovers and climbers

water hardiness

Grevillea 'Bronze Rambler'

grevillea 'Bronze Rambler'

Thought to be a hybrid of Grevillea rivularis and Grevillea 'Poorinda Peter'. A dense groundcover spreading up to 4m.

top ten

bird attracting
coastal gardens
flowers and showy seed heads frost tolerant
groundcovers
lawn alternatives
verge planting

origin	Hybrid species
cultural notes	Very vigorous and hardy. Adaptable to a range of soils provided they are well drained, grow in full sun or part shade.
maintenance	Can be pruned if required.
tolerates	Frost and drought tolerant.
flowering season	Spring, Summer and Autumn.
flower colour	Deep red toothbrush shaped flowers.
foliage colour	Dark green dissected or deeply lobed leaves, new growth is tinged with bronze.
width	up to 4m
height	up to 0.3m
recommended uses	Fast growing groundcover for banks, walls and other difficult sites. Attractive foliage and flowers, can be used indoor or out in pots or hanging baskets.

project type

urban and commercial
residential
erosion control
horticultural production

soil type and drainage

light - sandy soils
medium - loamy soils
good drainage