

plant type

- native trees and shrubs

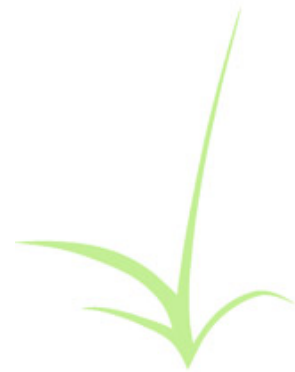

water hardiness

Grevillea 'Pink Lady'

grevillea 'Pink Lady'

Thought to be a hybrid species with Grevillea juniperina as one of the parents, the other is unknown. A dense spreading groundcover rarely exceeding 30cm in height and spreading 2m. Bright green prickly foliage, pink and green flower occur in spring.

top ten

bird attracting coastal gardens
flowers and showy
seed heads

origin

Cultivar

cultural notes

A hardy plant accepting of most soils provided they are well drained. Grow in full sun or part shade.

maintenance

Prune after flowering to encourage new growth.

project type

urban and commercial residential

tolerates

Frost and drought tolerant.

flowering season

Spring, sporadic flowering year round.

soil type and drainage

light - sandy soils
medium - loamy soils
heavy - clay soils
good drainage

flower colour

Pale pink spider-like flowers with green styles.

foliage colour

Prickly bright green linear leaves to 1.5cm in length.

width

up to 2m

height

up to 0.3m

plant spacing

50cm apart

recommended uses

An attractive groundcover providing excellent habitat for small birds. Can be trailed over retaining walls or in pots.