

plant type

- native flowers, groundcovers and climbers

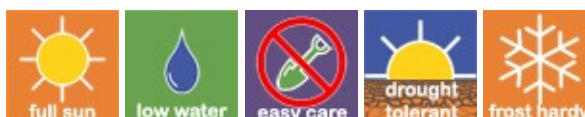

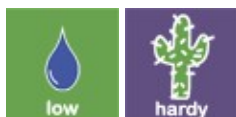

Wahlenbergia stricta

tall bluebell

tufted/ trailing plant attractive purple flowers water hardiness

top ten

coastal gardens flowers and showy seed heads small plants for small gardens origin	nsw, act, vic, qld, tas, sa cultural notes	full sun, poor soils, very hardy maintenance	prune to remove spent flower heads tolerates	frost, drought conditions flowering season	spring to summer flower colour	small star shaped purple flowers foliage colour	small soft green leaves at base height	up to 0.4m

plant spacing	10cm apart recommended uses	rockeries, mass plantings, pots, hanging baskets and as a substitute lawn project type urban and commercial residential ecosystem type woodland riparian soil type and drainage

light - sandy soils
medium - loamy soils
good drainage

plant image credits

