

Prunus cerasifera 'Elvins'

Ornamental Plum 'Elvins'

A small deciduous plum with a V-shaped canopy. The foliage has the colour of bright green through summer, turning rust-red in autumn. Through spring, there is a large production of pale pink double flowers that are present down the branches.

Origin	Africa, Asia.
Size	Up to 5 metres high, Up to 4 metres wide.
Cultural Notes	Prefers full sun to part shade. This tree can grow in containers, suitable for areas with limited soil available.
Tolerates	Tolerant of frost once established.
Flowers / Flowering Season	Pale pink flowers cover the branches of the tree through spring.
Foliage Colour or Type	Foliage is a bright green through summer and will turn rust-red through autumn before falling.
Soil Type	Prefers well-draining soil. Most soil types and pH levels are appropriate.
Suited to	A perfect ornamental tree due to its size and bloom. Perfect for small gardens or courtyards as it can withstand contained soils. This tree works well in streetscapes and avenues.

V Shaped

Full Sun

Part Shade

Medium water

Frost Hardy

Wildlife Attracting